General Comments

A Monitoring Inspection was conducted this afternoon. Children were observed outside. A group of children were observed on the basketball court, playing basketball with their friends, and educator. Another group of children were observed on the play equipment, and a few others were observed walking around the play area. Educators stated that the children are presently interested in hockey, outside play, drawing, coloring, and dress up. Positive child guidance techniques were observed - educators taking part in play, educators conversing with the children, and educators providing appropriate supervision. The inside environment was observed while the children were outside. Inside, several well-defined learning / play centers were observed - dramatic play, arts & crafts, building, science, and a cozy reading corner. Several forms of documentation were observed - children's artwork, photos, and learning stories. Parent board was observed and all required documents were posted.
