28(2) An operator of a licensed facility shall carry out emergency evacuation and fire drills monthly.	28(2)	Jan 31, 2024
Comments: December 2023 was not filled out. Operator stated that the December 2023 drill was indeed completed, but that it was not recorded. The 2024 Emergency evacuation and fire drill record sheet was added to the parent board this morning. Drills are to be completed and recorded on a monthly basis.

General Comments
A Monitoring Inspection was completed this morning. Children were observed during inside play. Infant Room – Children were observed looking at their favorite book – "The Crayons Book of Feelings". Children were observed saying and repeating the feelings that were displayed on the pages. Children were also observed bouncing on their bouncy animals, building with blocks, and playing with cars. Twos – The twos were split into two groups. One group was observed in the classroom, playing at the snow sensory bin, and sitting at a table, mark making. The other group was observed in the hallway, building with blocks, and drawing. 30 Month – Children were observed building with blocks and magnetic tiles. Children were also observed playing with baby dolls. Educators stated that the children are presently very interested in mark making. Three - The 3's were not present during this morning's inspection. Operator stated that the 3's were next door, at the preschool. Three / Four - Children were observed in a variety of activities - drawing / coloring with their new "magic markers," looking at books in the Reading Nook, building with blocks, and playing with dolls and the doll house. Four / Five - Children were observed painting, practicing their letters, and playing with their home-made zoo. Educator stated that the children are presently very interested in letters, words, and spelling. Educator also stated that the children are interested in animals, and creating their own pieces of wall materials (pictures, number lines, etc.) Several forms of documentation were observed throughout the facility – children's artwork, family trees, photos, learning stories, and play invitations. Positive child guidance techniques were observed throughout the facility – educators at the children's level, educators providing appropriate supervision, educators using positive language, educators offering choices, and educators assisting children in decision- making.
