General Comments
A Monitoring Inspection was completed this morning. Children were getting ready for walks and or already out on walks. Attendance records for the groups of children who were getting ready for walks, were observed. Attendance records were accurate. A conversation was had with operator regarding attendance records and how they must be taken out of the facility, during walks. The inside environments were observed. A conversation was had with operator regarding the sensory bin in the two's room. When there are smaller items in this bin, it should be covered when not in use / when direct supervision is not available. All rooms had several forms of open-ended artwork displayed on the walls. Well defined learning / play centers were observed in each room. A conversation was had regarding the TV's. Operator stated that the TV's are only used occasionally, during some transitions. The outdoor play yard was observed.
