General Comments Children engaged in activities in the indoor and outdoor play environments during inspection. A balance of activities provided to encourage children's engagement. Nice to see books and art materials offered as invitations to the children when playing outdoors. Ensure pencil crayons and pencils are sharpened and ready for use when offering to children. Children's interests and learning evident in the documentation posted throughout all learning environments. Educators observed to be interacting with children at their level. Engaging in conversation and offering ideas to extend children's play and learning. An application for change for the new outdoor play spaces must be submitted to your Quality Assurance Monitor.
