General Comments
Monitoring Inspection: Children and educators observed engaged in a variety of activities this afternoon including puzzles, open ended art, outdoor play and dramatic play. The Twos Room was closed today due to low attendance, the children and educator joined with the other groups. New easels have been added to the play areas. Purposeful planning is evident through documentation of the children's learning and experiences displayed throughout the learning environments. Documentation includes connections to the NB Curriculum Framework. During inspection QA Monitor noted transition times for washroom routines and outdoor play had long periods of waiting for children. QA Monitor recommends planning for transition times. Examples: taking smaller groups to get ready, adding a basket of fidget toys for children to explore as they wait, planning songs or games, etc. Washroom: Screw protruding from wall, to be repaired. Paper towel was not accessible within the washroom; children were observed sharing a large towel. Paper towel or one time use towels must be accessible within the washroom. The potty in the washroom was left with urine in it; potties must be emptied and cleaned between each use. QA Monitor discussed with administrator during inspection. A Change in Service Application for change in administrator is to be submitted to department. QA Monitor has
