General Comments
A Monitoring Inspection was completed this afternoon. Oatmeal Room - Children were observed making crafts, playing board games, playing with dinosaurs, and reading books. Documentation of children's work was observed throughout the classroom. Valentine's Day activities and crafts were observed, as well as winter themed activities. Children were observed washing their hands before snack. Purple Room - Hawaiian music played in the background and the white board had a word web, with all things Hawaiian. Children's interests and ideas were kept in a cup and educator draws an idea out of the cup, on a weekly, sometimes biweekly basis. Hawaii was drawn this week, and last weeks theme was Panda Bears. Children were also observed playing cards and reading books, on a carpet, in the reading corner. Children were observed during afternoon snack. Some children ate their own snacks, while others were served salad. A conversation about how to make the reading cozy corner, more cozy, was had with the educator.
