General Comments
A Monitoring Inspection was completed this afternoon. Purple Room - Children in the Purple room were divided into two groups. One group played outside, while the other stayed inside, eating snack and taking part in free play. Groups switched midway through. Children were observed eating pretzel crackers and hummus for snack. Children were observed reading books in the cozy reading corner. While outside, children were observed sliding and playing in the snow, with their educator. Oatmeal Room - Children were finishing snack at QAM's arrival. Children were observed gathered at the white board, trying to figure out a question that was prepared by their educator. The question was "What Animal am I?" and the educator had provided several clues. Children were observed working as a team, trying to figure out the answer. Blue Room - Children were observed taking part in several activities, some of which included: Building, Drawing, Lego, Hair Salon, and a Water Table. QAM reviewed a binder full of previous activities, and children enjoyed looking at the binder, talking about such activities, with QAM. A Science experiment involving flowers and food coloring was observed. A freshly painted wall, displaying a beautiful nature scene was observed. Several forms of documentation were also observed throughout the classroom.
