General Comments A Monitoring Inspection was completed this morning. Upon arrival, the 4-year-olds were playing in the backyard. The 4's were also observed during snack, and during story time. Educators stated that the 4's are presently very interested in snow play - shoveling and sliding. The three-year-olds were observed sitting at a table, making crafts, with their educator. A group of 3's were also observed playing with superheroes on a rug. Educator stated that the children are presently very interested in Superheroes. The two-year-olds were observed sitting at a table, completing crafts. Educators stated that the 2's are presently very interested in animals. Several forms of documentation were observed, throughout the facility - wonderful webs, learning stories, photos, etc. Well defined learning / play areas were observed in each room. Positive child guidance techniques were observed throughout the ELC- educators sitting with children during snack, educators using positive language, educators offering choices, educators providing appropriate supervision, and educators preparing children for transitions.
