General Comments A renewal inspection occurred today. The children were observed in their indoor environments and outdoor. Indoor materials were organized, labelled and displayed at children's level to be independently accessed. Areas were flexible to accommodate children's emerging interests. Materials were open ended to provide multiple choices, solutions and possibilities for exploration and investigations. Various forms of documentation were observed throughout the environment excluding " unique and special" and " all about me". Handwashing procedures were observed and done correctly. All checks were complete. All staff and random review of children's files were observed and complete.
