| General Comments Follow up inspection was completed today. New floors have been put down near entry way. These are temporary as operator reports that all floors will be replaced in near future. Lock box has been purchased to store medication in refrigerator when required. The step outside and the fence board have been replaced. The younger children were observed playing outdoors this morning. The older children were observed within the dramatic play area, building with magnetic blocks and playing alongside their educators on the floor. A large carpet has been purchased to be used within the preschool room block construction area . All orders for compliance are now rectified. Recommended for renewal. |
