21 The daily activities of a licensed facility shall be purposely planned in advance and documented and shall respond to the capabilities, needs and interests of each child.	21	Jan 29, 2021
Comments: Children's work displayed on the walls and in a binder, however educators documentation of this is on the white board only for the day. Discussed documenting and planning activities for school-age children. Discussed having a book to capture these ideas. "Having a written plan ensures there are a variety of opportunities provided for learning and exploration. This may be demonstrated in many ways, such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • weekly program • daily activity sheets "The NB PLAYBOOK" is a comprehensive resource designed for educators in school-age programs. This resource may assist in planning activities and can be found at: https://www.nbplays.ca"

General Comments A monitoring inspection was conducted today. Discussed with on site administrator to ensure that the correct COVID-19 screening questionnaire was being used now that we have moved to the "orange zone". Recommended keeping the "red zone" questionnaire in case we our region goes back to red. Children were observed respecting "bubble groupings", having snack, engaged in conversations with their peers and their educators. Children in Group A were observed in making individual play-dough made with hair conditioner, paint and cornstarch. Children in Group B were observed making "plastic" decorations from milk and vinegar combination. The educators were observed engaged, laughing and having meaningful/respectful conversations with the children.
