General Comments
A Monitoring Inspection was completed this afternoon. Children were arriving at the church when QAM arrived. Children were observed washing their hands upon arrival. Children were served pretzels and hummus for snack. Several invitations were set up for the children. Children were observed in the larger room today. Children were observed making St. Patrick's Day crafts, working on Diamond Paintings, drawing, and coloring. Educators were engaged with the children, sitting, talking, helping, and laughing with them. Several forms of documentation was observed throughout the facility. Framed artwork was observed in the hallway. Educators shared their planning / documentation binder with QAM and it was full of wonderful pictures of past activities and weekly planning.
