General Comments

A Monitoring Inspection was completed this afternoon. Children were observed playing inside. The room was full of inviting tabletop activities - arts and crafts, puzzle table, game table, building table, etc. A group of children were observed playing floor hockey. Children were also observed playing in the dramatic play area - dress up clothing and play kitchen. A group of children were observed organizing themselves in a circle, preparing for a game of catch. Both educators were engaged with the children - walking around the room, talking to the children, and taking part in activities.
