General Comments A visit to the facility was conducted today. Children were observed in inside play due to the heavy rains. An educator in the upstairs preschool room had set up an invitation with different rocks that she had gathered in St. Martins. The children were exploring the different types of rocks as well three was rock there that no one knew what it was. The children were interested in making pet rocks so the educators had set up the art table with an invitation for them to paint as they wish. Discussions were had regarding compliance with regulations, curriculum implementation, the outside play area (which has had a new fence erected), as well as support for staff and operator. The school-age room downstairs has the children's learning and interested posted on the wall and evidence of open-ended art is displayed throughout their area. Educators were observed in play and conversations with the children. Getting down to their level and engaged with them. The children were observed engaged in various activities from art to dramatic play. The children appeared happy and content in their environment and the educators were observed speaking respectfully to the children in their interactions.
