General Comments Monitoring Inspection: Children and educators engaged in play and conversations this afternoon. Educators have each environment set up with a wide variety of invitations. Invitations respond to the children's current interests. It is evident that educators have purposefully planned for their group to ensure children are engaged and happy. Wonderful job! Many positive interactions and meaningful conversations were observed between educators and children, as well as between the children and their peers. Educators have been focusing on mindfulness and social emotional learning during their group meetings each day. The educators have been taking time after the children leave for the day to set up invitations for each other. Educators explore the invitations and provide feedback to their colleagues. This is an excellent way to reflect and improve the program.
