General Comments
A renewal inspection was conducted today on the school-age program located at Sussex Elementary School. The children were observed in both inside and outside play. The dark dreary day did not prevent the children from getting outside. It is evident that going outside is part of their normal daily routine despite the weather conditions. The children were observed asking when they could go outside and play and each group was observed going outside. The educators each have their own group of children and they are finding this is working much better as they are getting to know the children really well. Each group has multiple invitations for learning set up in their learning environments that cater to the interests of the children. The children were observed in areas of art, sensory, building, dramatic play, reading/literacy. The children appeared happy and content in the school-age program and with their educators. The educators were observed speaking kindly and appropriately to the children and engaged with them in their conversations, learning and play.
