General Comments
Great improvements in the after school room. Children engaged in an a variety of activities. Educators in this room engaged with the children in play and learning. Room arrangement supports children's interests. After school room was set up prior to children's arrival.
Preschool room, not set up prior to children's arrival, however the children were engaged in play in dramatic play area. Discussed positive child guidance and having the room set up prior to children's arrival with supervisor.
