General Comments Monitoring Inspection: Children and educators observed engaged in a variety of activities this afternoon including art, sensory experiences, building, outdoor play, puzzles and dramatic play. A small group of children in the junior group were creating paper bag puppets and exploring playdoh. The seniors were divided into two groups - one group went outdoors and the others stayed in to explore a variety of invitations set-out for them at arrival. During transitions, educators completed regular headcounts and roll calls to verify the presence of all children before moving to another area. Handwashing routines were observed at arrival and during washroom routines. Daily attendance records are accurate and reflect all children present. Child-to-staff ratio was observed to be met during Monitoring Inspection. New staff file (2) review was completed; one staff is missing a signed statement, to be added to file.
