General Comments
A renewal inspection occurred today. Children were observed in both indoor and outdoor learning environments. Educators were observed using positive guidance, asking open-ended questions ("i wonder, tell me"). Educators were comfortable being their children's play partners, following their lead rather than leading their play. Materials were displayed and organized, as well as on children's level. Materials were natural, familiar, real-life materials that represent children's home environments. Areas were flexible to accommodate children's emerging interests. All checks were verified and complete. All staff files and random review of children's files were observed and complete.
