General Comments
A renewal inspection occurred today. Children were observed both indoors and outdoors. Various forms of invitations were set up, including but not limited to: "discover the earth, "new fluffy friends" and "Thank-you cards for the SJ police". Children (as well as educators) were engaged in their learning environments, forming meaningful relationships. Materials and props were reflective in children's currant interests, curiosities and passions. Afternoon snack was set up in each environment (Carrots, Cucumbers and pita). Educators allowed independence and participation during snack time. Areas were flexible to accommodate children's emerging interests and inviting. Furnishings were child-size, comfortable, cozy and accessible. Multiple forms of documentation were present within the classrooms that displayed open-ended art projects created and led by the children. Educators had purposely planned activities that took into account each child's strengths, interests and desires. Room 4 combined with room 3 due to low numbers but the environment was set up and ready for use. All checks were verified and complete. All staff and a random review of children's files were also verified and complete.
