General Comments

Annual Inspection:

Playground inaccessible due to weather conditions and condition of playground. Will re-assess/inspect playground at follow up to annual inspection.

Educators have created an engaging, inviting environment for the children to interact in. During annual inspection one group was observed making sugar cookies, another group in the gym, and another group making home-made clay.

During annual inspection, educators were observed engaged with the children in their activities and conversations.

Children have the ability to pick which activities they wish to participate in. If they chose not to participate in organized activities they are permitted to engage in their own play and learning.
