General Comments
When I arrived most the children were outside. I toured the facility found evidence of planned activities and documentation in every room. Some educators were in the process of cleaning the rooms while the children were outside. Toys and other materials are on open accessible shelves for the children. The educators had a dance party happening outside for the more active children and art materials were available on the tables for those who wanted quiet activities. Other children were enjoying free play by driving the wheeled cars and playing in the sand and dirt.
