General Comments

Educators are aware of the number of children they have in each group at all times.
 The facility is clean, organized and the room are properly set up with defined learning areas.
 There is evidence of planned programing and documentation as shown by the learning stories and children's artwork posted in the rooms and hallways.
 During the visit the children were engaged in a wide variety of activities such as building towers with magnets, crafts, dramatic play, sensory bins and a dance party.
 Educators were engaged with the children, sitting with them on the floor and participated in the various activities.
 Children seem comfortable in the environment.
