General Comments

The program plan is structured but the environment supports many learning opportunities. The Operator engages with the children in a caring and loving manner. For the 2.5 hours that the preschool program runs in the morning the children and Operator are completely engaged in playing and conversation. I observed a circle time with the children, a game played, snack time, free choice activities and painting.

There were a couple of files missing emergency contacts and the Operator was able to get them at time of visit. One of the preschool children was also missing an immunization record however the Operator will e-mail it to
