General Comments Licensing staff arrived as some children were finishing their afternoon snack. Classrooms were observed to be well organized and had a variety of materials such as ramps, roads, inviting dramatic play materials, a lego wall and Lincoln logs. The room also allowed space for children to leave long term projects. Younger children were observed playing with playdough that the educator had made that day, they had cookie cutters and items to roll and manipulate the playdough with. Other children were cutting and pasting from a scholastic magazine and playing with magna-tiles. School age children were engaged in a large group activity and were predicting, voting and having a group discussion. Educators were observed counting the children out loud before proceeding outside to the outdoor play area. Within the outdoor play area, the children had the opportunity to engage with a mud kitchen, play structure, colouring, plants, and water. Ample shade was provided, and all children were engaged in self-directed activities throughout the inspection. Positive behaviour guidance was observed at all times and educators were engaging with children at their level.
