| On the day of my visit the center was functioning well. The children are divided into four small groups and there are extra staff in each group. This leads to smooth transition times and a generally peaceful atmosphere. I was properly screened upon entry and all Covid protocols are being followed properly. I updated the staff files ,as there have been a lot of staff changes over the year. Everything was great and there are no compliances today. |
