General Comments
On the day of my visit the Preschool program was functioning very well. I was properly screened upon entry and all Covid protocols are being followed. The program is quite small and this is an excellent opportunity to tailor the program to the interest of the children and co-create the curriculum together. Story time might be more enjoyable for the group if they wrote the stories, and illustrated the stories themselves. The group was very interested in jewelry and turned all their spiral Lego into jewellery which they wore. More items for dramatic play that you can sanitize might add to this play. Amanda and I reviewed staff files and administration and everything is organized and up to date.
