General Comments

The facility has a variety of age - appropriate materials for the children.
The rooms are set up well and there are plenty of natural materials for the children to explore with.
There is documentation of children's learning throughout the center.
During the visit the infant group were having a painting activity while the other children were in the outdoor play space. The two-year old group were playing in the sand box, digging and making sandcastles. The older children were able to explore in the treed area where they were observed climbing on the logs and searching for insects.
