General Comments Licensing staff arrived prior to children arriving. The facility was clean, organized, and children and staff folders were complete with required documentation. Upon the children's arrival, bookbags were organized and then the children washed their hands. The children began to play in stations. Play material such as boardgames, books, blocks, dolls and accessories, puppets and card games were readily available and labeled. Educators were observed playing and interacting with the children and were happy to engage with their activities. The children washed their hands again prior to snack. They had granola bars and apples. The outdoor play area has a shade canopy and natural shade from trees. The play structure and materials offer various free play options such as basketball, swings and tires. Licensing staff recommend for licensing.
