General Comments
The educators have planned a carnival themed week for March Break. Children had their faces painted and had participated in games during the morning. Other plans for the week include Pie in the Face and Piñatas. Appropriate school aged materials are accessible to the children and recent artwork and photos show evidence of planned programming. The educator has created posters with photos of her and the children enjoying activities. The outdoor maintenance has been completed for January and February and the checklist is done. Allergies are posted at both entrances and other required postings are displayed on the parent boards. Children went outside after lunch and enjoyed playing on the large hill. Educators maintained sight lines on both sides of the hill to ensure the children's safety. Parents were permitted access and it was observed when a parent entered the back room to pick up their child. Child guidance was positive and both educators were observed playing cards and board games with the children. Educators spoke to children on their level and gave gentle, kind reminders.
