General Comments
Children were observed in both the indoor and outdoor play spaces. Children had outdoor time before lunch. Educators ensured children were dressed appropriately for the cold weather. Transitions were calm and both the director and assistant director were on hand to assist educators. Current learning stories, process art and photos were displayed in all rooms and the entrance way. New staff files were checked and documents were well-organized and easy to verify. Child files were complete and also organized. The facility was clean, well maintained and materials were organized and accessible to children. The outdoor play space had a number of sleds and shovels for children to play with. One educator brought out coloured water for the children to paint the snow. Educators were also appropriately dressed to remain engaged with children outside.
