General Comments It was raining on the day of the monitoring inspection visit on September 21st, 2022. The younger school aged children were engaging in free play activities when licensing staff arrived at the licensed facility. The activities the children were engaging in were: building blocks, dramatic play (dress-up clothing as well as My Little Pony), chess, mark making activity using paper plates, pencils and pencil crayons. The educators were observed using positive child guidance techniques, as well as, engaged with the children throughout the inspection visit. Once all of the school aged children arrived at the centre, the children headed to the gym to engage in gross motor play. All staff files were organized and complete with all required documentation. Licensing staff observed an abundance of play materials accessible to the children.
