General Comments The preschool children were playing upon my arrival. There are many materials available to the children and they were encouraged to choose where they wanted to play. The children played, had snack and later prepared to go outside. The educators were always engaged with the children and put their needs first. They were observed having conversations at the children's levels and playing with them. The school-age children arrived and immediately prepared for outdoor play. The educators stated that they go out first to help the children unwind for their school day. All documentation was easily verified for licensing and I can now recommend facility for licensing pending a current fire inspection.
