General Comments

On the day of my visit the afterschool program was functioning very well. The children were content and engaged in a variety of centers. Today everyone was making candles from wax beads.

The Covid-19 protocols are being followed and the center is very clean and well organized. Farah has a beautiful outside play area that is well set up for the children.

Farah will send me her updated Social Development Check and the First Aids for herself and her daughter (who works with her sometimes) and an updated insurance.
