General Comments I arrived just as the children were finishing snack. They then had circle time where they read a book about firefighters. The reading was interactive with the educator asking the children questions as they went along. After reading, the children did an activity with a fire fighting theme. The children seemed to enjoy this. They rejoined the circle at the end of the morning and sang a goodbye song. They put on their outdoor shoes and then waited for someone to pick them up. Pick ups happen at the outside door and parents do not enter the center. The center is clean and the educators are keeping up well with cleaning and sanitizing and I noted the cleaning charts are up to date. They are following the current COVID guidelines well. Attendance is kept up to date and they are recording reason for absence properly. I looked at child files and they are well organized and all necessary documentation is present. The program seems to be running well and everything I looked at is compliant with regulations.
