General Comments
Attended centre to perform follow up monitoring inspection. Dress up clothing had been added to the two-year-old room and the large castle and slide had been replaced with a playhouse. This appeared to work better within the play space. Other items in two-year-old room remained depleted. I spoke with the administrator and suggested she support the educators in the two-year-old room by helping them add materials to the room based on the interests of the children to expand on their play. Administrator followed up via email with photos of the two-year-old play space with replenished play items that were developmentally appropriated. All items from the inspection are now compliant.
