General Comments
Each room has well-defined learning centres set up for children to carry out intended activities. They include dramatic play, sensory, reading, blocks, art, puppetry and construction areas to name a few. Throughout the environments learning stories, children's photos and artwork are posted on the walls. Please reference the curriculum framework to create a quality learning environment in the outdoor play spaces. Learning centres and accessories are required. It is also recommended that the educators have invitation to play containers that are accessible and refilled as required. These should be set up prior to the children entering the outdoor play space. Licensing staff observed toys stored in the play house and the children were walking on top of them as they were not removed. Storage to ensure that toys do not get broken is also recommended.. Materials are not limited to use in a particular learning centre only but the centres must be clearly defined. The outdoor play space is an extension of the indoor play areas where children continue to learn and grow. For more information regarding play materials and equipment please consult the New Brunswick Curriculum Framework.

As discussed please sand down the jagged edges on the picnic table and stabilize the benches. More tables would be a benefit the for the children to have invitations for play in the outdoor play space.

The educators were observed engaged with the children at their level. I could hear conversations and gentle redirections given to the children when needed. Only positive child guidance was seen on the day of my visit.

As the infants have different sleeping schedules, outdoor play should still occur by one educator taking 3 infants outside when possible in the morning and in the afternoon.
