General Comments

- Visit done at the establishment in the morning for a monitoring inspection.
- Ratio was respected during the visit.
- Easily accessible space is provided for personal belongings labelled with the child's name, and only used for the intended child.
- Outdoor play material is varied and in sufficient quantity for all children present. There are no fixed play structures in the playground.
- Financial records are maintained on site. Emergency evacuation and fire drills are completed, and records are maintained.
- The facility uses positive child guidance during the visit.
- Observations: All groups went outside.
- 3-year-olds: creating art, handwashing and free play.
- 4-year-olds: free play and outdoor play
- Discussions with the director concerning transition, personal belongings, attendance records and the interior environment. I recommend adding the absent codes to the attendance sheets.
