General Comments
The children were returning from outside at time of visit. After taking off outdoor clothing, the children washed their hands. Children were observed engaged in play, moving freely to learning centres of their choice. Educators engaged with children and took interest in what the children were telling them and redirected unwanted behaviors very patiently. Educators are kind and caring and were observed always putting the needs of the children first. I was easily able to verify all required licensing information as the system is complete and organized. Educators are keeping portfolios for each child which contains documentation of the children's work and learning. Licensing staff can recommend facility for licensing.
