General Comments The Quality Assurance Monitor is on-site this morning to conduct a monitoring inspection. The following elements were observed: - Child Records - Signed Consent - Incident Records - Medication - Washrooms - Personal Belongings - Outdoor Play Area During the visit, children are observed playing outdoors, drawing with chalk, playing hopscotch, and engaging in free play in two other groups. Lunch time is also observed, with children eating from their lunch boxes. The Quality Assurance Monitor discusses a smell in the facility with the operator. The operator mentions that one of the classrooms was painted over the weekend, which may be contributing to the odor. The Quality Assurance Monitor had another discussion with the operator regarding the designation requirements. The operator confirms that all eligible educators are completing their 10 hours of professional learning and that the Quality Improvement Plan is up to date. The ratio is respected during the visit.
