General Comments

Visit to complete the renewal inspection today.

Educators participated in the inspection process by elaborating on the children's interests within their groups and contributing relevant information about the routine of the day and cleaning of toys/materials/equipment.

Educators were observed to be engaged with the children in play at their level, reading with the children, sitting with the children during mealtime and circle time activities. Participating along with the children and being their conversational partner builds respectful relationships and directly supports well-being.

The children were observed to be playing happily, participating in story time as well as actively contributing recently learned knowledge about their interests. The children's enthusiasm about sharks demonstrates evidence of an explored interest in their bubble group!

Reminder to change the group established date on the Daily Log when a new child joins a group (new enrollment).
