General Comments
A Monitoring Inspection was completed this afternoon. Children were observed preparing for nap, and during free play. Infants - Educators were observed sitting on the floor with the infants, looking at books. Infants were observed looking at the books, pointing to food pictures, and saying food names out loud. Another educator was observed playing catch with one of the infants. Diaper changing was observed and diaper changing procedures were followed. 4's Room - Children were observed taking part in several activities - building with magnetic blocks, Lego, water play, and arts and crafts. Educators were observed sitting with the children, taking part in play. School Aged Program - Children had just finished painting rocks at QAM's arrival. Painted rocks were observed drying on the counter. Children were observed making bracelets, drawing, and playing with Bionicle Bots. Educators stated that the Bots are one of the biggest hits right now, and that the children are also very interested in science experiments.
