General Comments

The afterschool program arrives around 2:30 and staff met the bus, did a head count and took attendance. This group uses the larger room, and the children had snack and/or drew or coloured at the table. The group played games together such as Rythym Master, and then later they moved the table and chairs in the classroom to play in the day Ga Ga Ball.

The educators are kind and attentive and only positive proactive child guidance was observed. The room is bright, clean and organized and well set up for their use. Attendances, child and staff files and postings were observed to be up to date.
