General Comments

On the day of my visit it was a rainy day and all the children were inside. The three year old year old group were making crowns. The two year olds were playing with various items from toy animals, baby dolls and making food with the play kitchen. The infants were playing some toy trucks. The 4-5 year olds and afterschool group were painting rocks and drawing.

The educators were engaged with the children and I heard many positive comments from the educators while I was there.

I was able to observe lunch. The meal of day was beef stew, crackers, apple sauce and yogurt for dessert. The children followed proper hand washing procedures before eating their lunch.

After lunch the younger children laid down for their afternoon nap, while he older children enjoyed some free play time.
