General Comments Licensing staff arrived at the licensed facility for a follow-up licensing inspection visit on November 22, 2021 at 7:35am. The centre was opening with a combined ratio until all educators arrived. There were no infants present when licensing staff arrived. Licensing staff asked the operator if she was keeping track of the children on a combined attendance sheet for morning arrival? The operator relayed that she does indeed keep a combined attendance sheet for morning arrival. The children and educators break off and go into their assigned classrooms where the children get signed in again. When the children arrived and went into their assigned classroom, the children engaged in free play activities. Licensing staff heard lots of laughter, singing and rich conversations between child and educator about what the children did on the weekend. The centre was extremely clean and very warm and welcoming. The children were happy, licensing staff did not hear any children crying when they transitioned from mom/dad to the operator/educator. At approximately 8:15am, the first infant arrived and the infant educator was present to take the infant into their assigned classroom.
