General Comments

A renewal Inspection occurred today. The children were observed during indoor and outdoor play, transitions, lunch and preparing for nap. There is displayed documentation for inviting children to revisit and talk about their thinking and learning. The documentation observed is also aa great way to invite families to share ideas and suggestions. The educators were engaged at the children's level both indoors and out which gave support for independence and participation during meal, naptimes and transitions.

Recommendation for all staff to refer to the art area audit resource previously sent by Quality Assurance monitor when enhancing creative art area in each room.
