| General Comments Nancy Glendenning and Tanya Gaudet arrived at facility and children were playing outside while others were napping. The outdoor play space has many natural wood structures and materials. The learning centres include, music, chalk, art, dramatic play, gross motor, fine motor, a quiet area, sand play, but not exclusive. The indoor play environment has many materials and learning invitations set up for the children. There is open-ended artwork posted within the facility, learning stories, and pictures. The educators are evidently providing a child-based program based on their interests. One of the educators stated that they journal ideas to add to the children's environment of interests. |
