General Comments A renewal inspection occurred during the morning preschool and afternoon school-age programs. Upon arrival at the childcare facility, licensing observed the preschool children in the outside fenced play area. Children were observed playing with trucks and balls with their educators and peers. During inside time the preschool children were observed by licensing having their morning snack, participating in a show and share, playing dress up, musical instruments, dolls, and painting. Children's learning and art were observed displayed on the walls of the learning environment. Licensing observed that the children have been planting vegetables and herbs as well as creating a book. In the school-age program, licensing observed the creating art, engaged in moon sand, Lego, action figures, water play, Bosu ball and origami. The school-age children were not observed going outside as they were planning in going out at the end of the day.
