| General Comments |
|--|
| Upon arrival to the facility, children were eager to play with their friends and educators provided some free time before having snack. There are 3 large tables with benches and a strategically placed shelf to allow for another quiet space. Educators set out board games and Shopkins and assisted children in picking which board game they wanted to play. Staff files were verified. One educator's Social Development Check recently expired in January. A new one must be completed and sent it to be in compliance. There are smaller rooms that are organized by activity. There is a science room, art area, games and reading area. All required documents are posted in the entrance way. Program planning is on a calendar and recent art in the centre shows that the educators have been doing activities for Chinese New Year. I also saw Perler Bead Art creations and marshmallow snow globes. Snack was oranges, apples, crackers and cheddar cheese. Children were invited up to the shelf to serve themselves and choose which items they wanted. After snack, children got ready to go outside to play. |
