General Comments

The first group of children were engaged in play with squishies, lego, and the playhouse with the two educators. One educator went to pick up children from school as the other educator laughed and talked with children. When the group returned and both bus groups arrived, the children washed up for snack. Today's snack was cookies and oranges.

The environment has a good variety for school age including two shelves of board games, lego, art materials and a shelf with magazines, chapter and information books. Each child has an individual hook for their book bag and outdoor wear with a basket on the shelf with their name and space for crafts, sunscreen, water bottles, and any other items. Each hook and basket are labelled with the child's name.

The tables were cleaned after snack and before heading outside. The children were happy to get outside heading to their desired place to play. Some went to the woods behind the building and others stayed on the pavement playing with the frisbee, skipping ropes, hula hoop, and balls. When the frisbee broke, the educator immediately removed it from the space. The children were eager to see if it would be replaced.

The educators placed themselves throughout the space so they could see the children. They also set up markers for the children to not go beyond which the children respected.
